BILL OHM ENDORSED BY REPUBLICAN LIBERTY CAUCUS OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
Endorsement means financial and material support for candidate with common sense agenda

July 27, 2010, Nashua, N.H. — Bill Ohm, a candidate for New Hampshire State Representative for Nashua, has been endorsed by the Republican Liberty Caucus of New Hampshire (RLCNH), a strong sign that he will bring common sense ideas to the State House and help New Hampshire to move in the right direction.

"I intend to cut spending, stop the tax increases, and promote job growth," said Bill Ohm, a candidate for State Representative for Nashua. "I extend my hand to every candidate that is endorsed by the RLCNH to work together to get our spending under control and to restore fiscal responsibility to governance in New Hampshire."

As a candidate endorsed by the Republican Liberty Caucus of New Hampshire, Bill Ohm will receive financial support, networking opportunities and campaign support.

"Our endorsement of Bill Ohm for is a strong statement of our confidence in his commitment to individual liberty, personal responsibility, limited government and free enterprise as well as the Common Sense for New Hampshire agenda that will help to bring about these ideals," said Andrew Hemingway, chairman of the Republican Liberty Caucus of New Hampshire. "We will do everything we can to help Bill Ohm win his seat to build a Legislature that fights for lower taxes, less spending and limited government. These policies will help the people of New Hampshire build our own prosperous futures."
